

Disturbances Erupt on Ala. School Front

By DON MCKEE
Associated Press Staff Writer

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—Pupil boycotts protesting integration spread to new schools across Alabama today and disrupted some classes not even desegregated.

More than 1,000 boys and girls stayed away from West End High School in Birmingham for the third day in a row, while an estimated 300 walked out at Murphy High in Mobile for the first time, chanting anti-Negro yells. Nearly 50 pupils were arrested at Mobile.

Sympathy protests broke out at the still-segregated Ensley and Jones Valley high schools in Birmingham, and a yelling crowd of some 300 teen-agers from the boycotted schools massed in front of still another, Phillips High, demanding that pupils there join the walkout.

Helmeted police rushed to Phillips and sealed off the block surrounding the school while the youthful demonstrators shouted and waved pro-segregation banners and Confederate flags.

Teachers ordered the Phillips pupils back to class, and few of them actually left the school. The crowd assembled in a park across the street from Phillips, then suddenly dispersed after about 30 minutes, departing in small groups.

Screaming men and women joined the demonstration as it moved from one section of Birmingham to another. Many of them carried the emblem of the militant pro-segregation National States Rights party.

Federalized National Guard troops remained on duty in an armory near the West End school, but did not intervene.

Rotarians to Hear Meat Packer

Chris Finkbeiner, president of the Little Rock Packing Co., will be guest speaker at Friday's Rotary Club luncheon. Sept. 18-21 has been designated "Beef Eating Week" by the Hope Chamber of Commerce which arranged to bring Mr. Finkbeiner here through the Hempstead Cattle-men's Association.

Mr. Finkbeiner is a well known booster for the State's livestock industry. Members are asked to invite a cattlemen friend as a guest to the luncheon.

President to Visit State Livestock Show

WASHINGTON (AP)—The White House said today President Kennedy will attend the Arkansas Livestock Exposition in Little Rock after dedicating Greers Ferry Dam on the Little Red River Oct. 3.

It was the first word that the President would attend the Little Rock event. He had already said he would appear at the dam dedication.

The Arkansas Congressional Delegation invited the President to both events several months ago, but there was never any indication until today that he would attend both.

Clyde Byrd, president of the Livestock Exposition, said details of the visit to Little Rock will have to be worked out later. He said it was hoped that the President would make a talk on the show grounds.

"We're delighted to have the chief executive come to Arkansas," Byrd said. "It's a great honor for this show. All the 500 fairs in the U.S. and Canada would certainly welcome such an occasion."

The President will land at Little Rock Air Force Base and go by helicopter to Heber Springs for the dam dedication. Then he apparently will return to Little Rock by helicopter for the appearance at the Livestock Exposition.

Revolt in Brazil Is Short Lived

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (AP)—The War Ministry announced today a group of rebel sergeants who took over the Navy Ministry in Brasilia have surrendered unconditionally.

A War Ministry communiqué said two rebel sergeants were wounded in the abortive rebellion, which opened before dawn. They were reported hospitalized and the rest imprisoned.

Infantry troops and tanks had surrounded the Navy Ministry building and given the rebels an ultimatum to surrender or face attack. The group was described at the outset as "practically without any possible defense."

Earlier the insurgents also had held control of the airport and central telephone exchange in the modernistic inland capital, about 600 miles northwest of Rio de Janeiro.

Producer Feels Television Broke Up Mass Production, Forced Selective Filming

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Producer Otto Preminger is a man of controversy who says he doesn't seek controversy at all.

"I'm a man of peace," he said. "But I select my stories and themes on the basis of my own interests. Since we live in a controversial time, why should I go out of my way to avoid controversy?"

"That's why I like America — it's still the freest country in the world."

There were those in the motion picture industry who predicted Preminger would run into endless controversies in filming his latest production, "The Cardinal," the story of a young American priest's rise to the rank of prince of the church.

But Preminger himself expressed surprise at the cooperation he received.

"The Vatican made no attempt to control the script," he marked. "There is much more freedom and autonomy in the church than I had thought."

Preminger, an ex-actor and lawyer who trained under the famed Max Reinhardt in Vienna, is a painstaking, all-around craftsman who likes to handle every aspect of his theatrical ventures. Everything has the Preminger personal touch.

Oil Derrick Collapses, 2 Men Die

MONAHANS, Tex. (AP)—A collapsing derrick killed two men helping drill an oil well Wednesday night, a third suffered serious injuries as he was hurled more than 100 feet to the ground.

Two other members of the drilling crew escaped injury as 200 tons of steel showered down all around them.

The accident happened shortly before midnight at a well being drilled 45 miles southwest of here in West Texas.

Workmen were pulling the drill stem from the hole, which is down to 18,504 feet in a test being sunk for Rhoden Oil Co. They had stacked about 17,500 feet of heavy pipe against what is known as the finger board, which supports the pipe high in the derrick.

Without warning the finger board gave way, pipe smashed against the derrick and it collapsed.

Robert J. Henderson, 24, of Odessa, Tex., was killed as he fell from the rig floor, which stood 28 feet above ground.

A heavy piece of the rig from near the top struck and killed Philip Crittendon 18, of Monahans.

J.B. Morris, 44, of Monahans tumbled from the top of the derrick, which reached 108 feet into the air.

Claims 12,319 Jobs for State Youths

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Arkansas Employment Security Division Administrator J. L. Bland said Wednesday that the ESD found jobs for 12,319 of the 22,044 persons under 22 who filed applications for jobs during the summer months.

Bland said youth placements represented 31 per cent of the 39,314 total placements made in the state in May, June, July and August. He said applications at ESD offices over the state by young people amounted to 46 per cent of the total new applications during the four month period.

Not One Problem Solved — Goldwater

CHICAGO (AP)—Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., says that "not one of our problems has been solved by the new frontier."

In a speech Wednesday night to the National Federation of Republican Women, opening a three-day silver anniversary meeting in Chicago, Goldwater attacked the Kennedy administration on all fronts.

"If the new frontier has a purpose, it is to expand the federal government to the point where it can regulate, not govern, the individual lives of all Americans," Goldwater said.

"A 'daddy knows best' attitude" has been adopted by the Kennedy administration, the senator said.

"And 'daddy' is getting tougher all the time. He's beginning to think that he can legislate away any and all problems that arise on the American scene."

TULSA, Okla. (AP)—List and Clark Construction Co. of Kansas City, Mo., submitted an apparent low bid of $2,464,157 Wednesday on the construction of a levee to protect Okay, Ark., and the Ideal Cement Co. from waters of the Millwood Reservoir near De Queen, Ark. U.S. Engineers estimated cost of construction of the 2.5 mile long levee at $2,713,239.

DAR Program Concerns the Constitution

"A modern day equivalent of the argument preceding the adoption of the U.S. Constitution could be the debate regarding the Test Ban Treaty," said Haskell Jones Wednesday in a speech before the John Cain Chapter, DAR. "One of the patriots opposing the adoption in 1787 was Patrick Henry, who was against a strong federal government."

These and other interesting highlights were brought by Jones in a message about the Constitution just prior to Constitution Week, September 17-24. He concluded his remarks by drawing a parallel between the erosion pattern of today's moral and spiritual behavior and a similar one found in Joshua 23. "Only with God's guidance were the problems solved then, and the same is true today," he said.

The luncheon meeting was held at the Heritage House. To honor Mrs. J. J. Battle for being an outstanding chairman of The Flag of the United States committee, a flag was presented to her by the chapter. It was announced that Representative Catherine Norrell and given a flag of historical significance to the Pioneer Washington Restoration Foundation. All chapter members were urged to buy their flags during Constitution Week and to encourage their fellow citizens to do the same.

Mrs. George Peck, Regent, named a committee to judge the Hope High School American History class essays entitled "What the Constitution Means to Me." Mrs. C. M. Agee, Constitution Day chairman, read the President General's message. Several chapter members recorded messages about the Constitution to be heard next week on KXAR.

Mrs. Otto Blackwood introduced the speaker. After giving the members a brief quiz about the Constitution, he delivered his timely message to 20. They included as guests Mrs. Helen Ruffin Marshall, Mrs. H. C. Whitworth, and Miss Mary Anita Laseker.

Hostesses were: Mrs. C. M. Agee, Mrs. J. A. Wilson, Mrs. J. W. Butler, and Mrs. Roy Stephenson.

All establishments engaged in the processing, storing, or the serving of foods are inspected by personnel representing the State Board of Health but such authority does not and should not extend to the home kitchen even though adequate personnel were available.

"We sincerely solicit the cooperation of all county officials and those associated with civic organizations to restrict the source of prepared food to be sold to the public to commercial establishments, thus minimizing the likelihood of sickness, expensive doctor and drug bills and possible death," Mr. Herron appealed.

School Bids Taken

HARDY, Ark. (AP)—W. B. Gay Builders of Memphis submitted an apparent low bid of $232,975 on construction of a new school building for Highland School District which serves Hardy and Ash Flat. The building will have 42,000 square feet of floor space, will house 12 classrooms, a library and study hall, three offices, a cafeteria and a gymnasium.

Truck Rate Increase Is Denied

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The state Commerce Commission denied Wednesday a request made by truckers on May 2, 1961, for a general intrastate rate increase to bring the rate to the level of interstate rates in effect when proceedings began.

The truckers, acting through the Southwestern Motor Freight Bureau, Inc., of Dallas, Tex., contended that wages taxes and operating costs had increased to the point where higher rates were justified.

The commission rejected the application on the grounds that the truckers, and railroads hauling less than carload shipments, failed to prove that a 12 per cent rate increase granted Oct. 6, 1958, was not sufficient to meet increased expenses.

The commission has not yet ruled on a later request by the state's major railroads for a freight rate increase.

Home Cooked Foods Can't Be Sold

The practice of advertising and selling home cooked foods to the public has become a common practice for community gatherings sponsored by various organizations.

This practice is in violation of the Arkansas Rules and Regulations pertaining to Food Service Establishments and should be discouraged, State Health Officer J. T. Herron, pointed out.

This department has not objected to a one-meal cook out for a community where the food is prepared on the premises or supplied from approved establishments meeting the State Regulations, provided it is properly protected, and served in single service utensils, Mr. Herron said.

Home cooked foods should never be offered for sale to the public in that one item of food processed in the home of a sick child or a carrier of a communicable disease may well result in an outbreak of sickness affecting many individuals who partake of the food inadvertently contaminated.

In order to protect the public from food poisoning, strep throat, influenza, typhoid fever and many other disease outbreak of sickness, the Food and Drug Division of the State Health Department is charged with the enforcement of Rules and Regulations promulgated by the State Board of Health.

Hope's delegation to the American Legion Convention in Miami, Fla. presented a 110 pound watermelon to the National Commander, James E. Powers, Wednesday.

The presentation was made by Dean Murphy, commander of Post 12, who took the melon to the convention. Middlebrooks back in 1935 and it weighed 195 pounds.

Arrests Follow Near Riot in N. Carolina

HIGH POINT, N.C. (AP)—Nine Negroes and two white men were arrested late Wednesday night as police used tear gas bombs to quell a near-riot that developed when 2,000 white persons began throwing rocks, eggs, tomatoes and other missiles at Negroes conducting anti-segregation demonstrations.

Police reported a single shot was fired, but no one was injured. Mayor Floyd Mehan criticized the city's Negro leadership for "dangerous, dictatorial and inconsistent statements." The mayor called for a meeting of the City Council to deal with the rapidly deteriorating racial situation.

The nine Negroes arrested were charged with trespassing and congregating on sidewalks.

The two white men were arrested on charges of carrying weapons.

Bonds for those arrested were set at $50 each.

High Point's Main Street was blocked off to traffic and pedestrians for more than an hour after police used tear gas and fire trucks to disperse the crowd of angry white people.

The downtown area was cleared when whites began regrouping after reports that a second Negro march was planned. Negro leaders called off the march.

Most of High Point's 80-man police force and other officers remained on duty through the night. At the mayor's request, 25 sheriff's deputies and 32 state troopers reinforced police for Wednesday night's demonstration.

The Rev. B. Elton Cox, a field representative for the Congress of Racial Equality, has demanded total integration of this industrial city of 65,000 persons. He rejected a request from the mayor Tuesday to declare a moratorium on demonstrations.

McClellan Joins Mkt. Tariff Fight

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., joined the fight Wednesday to protect Arkansas' industries from Common Market tariff barriers.

Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., started the fight after Common Market tariffs hit hard on poultry producers' who make up one of Arkansas' leading industries.

McClellan stepped in on behalf of the chemical industry, which he said is an important asset to the state and the nation and is a highly efficient and competitive industry.

Arkansas' senior Senator urged extreme caution when considering reduction of tariffs under the Trade Expansion Act.

The United States is preparing to withdraw a number of tariff concessions to balance the Common Market's high tariffs on poultry, McClellan said, adding that, "I, for one, heartily endorse this action if the poultry matter cannot be settled to a state of mutual satisfaction."

The same sort of action should be taken unless Common Market countries reduce tariffs to allow more U.S. exporting in the chemical field he said.

Senators Call for Policy Change or No Viet Nam Aid

WASHINGTON (AP)—Twenty-two senators introduced a resolution today calling for an end to all military and economic aid to South Viet Nam unless it abandons its "policies of repression" and seeks popular support.

In offering the resolution with support from 21 colleagues, Sen. Frank Church, D-Idaho, said that "the persecution of Buddhists by the present government of South Viet Nam is an affront to the good conscience of the American people."

"If these cruel repressions are not abandoned, further American aid to this government should be terminated, and American personnel withdrawn," Church added.

"The loss of South Viet Nam to communism would be deplorable, and particularly bitter after so long and agonizing an effort there," Church said.

"But, in the end, the country will fall victim to the relentless Communist penetration unless the Diem regime abandons its policies of repression or another non-Communist regime emerges to rally the people."

"The recent mass protests in the cities of South Viet Nam demonstrate that there is a mighty reservoir of anti-Communist feeling which could yet give greater popular support to the war against the Viet Cong."

French Plane Crashes, Forty Die

PERPIGNAN, France (AP)—A French airliner struck a mountain in southern France today and rescuers who reached the site later reported all 40 persons aboard had perished. There were 36 passengers, all British tourists, and four crew members.

A ground team which had set out from Lyon for the wreckage of the plane, on rugged 4,800-foot Roc de la Rouquette, advised Gen. Garmerie headquarters by radio that all aboard had been killed when the plane slammed into the mountain shortly after midnight.

19th Annual Show to Open With Parade

The 19th annual Third District Livestock Show will get underway on Monday, September 23rd with a gala parade in downtown Hope. High School and College bands have been invited to participate in this parade along with floats from schools and civic organizations throughout the district. Riding clubs have also been invited to participate. Prizes totaling $330.00 will be awarded winning floats in the parade.

An addition to the show this year will be a District Fair Queen's Contest, with young ladies between the ages of 16 and 21 competing for the District title. Entries will be limited to one from each County unless two Fairs are held in any given county, in which event one from each Fair will be accepted. The winner in this contest will receive a $100.00 cash award. This event will be held on Tuesday evening September 24th in the Coliseum.

Murphy High in Mobile, but the water was not turned on. The crowd of white pupils began to break up after about an hour.

Some of the Mobile pupils were arrested when they refused to return to school. They were hauled off in paddy wagons. Principal Raymond B. Taylor said leaders of the demonstration would be dealt with, but he did not elaborate.

In Tuskegee, no white pupils in the upper grades showed up for classes with 13 Negroes. Enrollment in the lower grades was normal.

At Graymont Elementary in Birmingham, a white girl, about 13, tossed rocks at two Negro boys. She was given a stern warning by the principal who told her to either go to class or stay at home.

The boys were not hit by the rocks.

At West End, policemen rerouted the segregation motorcades which included a truck carrying two coffins and an old car dragging a dummy by its neck. The drivers were ordered to get rid of their displays and the caravan was not allowed to pass the school again.

A slim, gray-haired teacher broke up a potential demonstration at a Birmingham high school not affected by the desegregation. Approximately 60 pupils gathered on a street corner across from Phillips High School and started waving Confederate flags and placards. Suddenly the teacher appeared and snatched the banners, then marched the pupils in to the school.

School officials in Birmingham were seeking to curb a wholesale boycott by white pupils. There was talk of a private school movement.

In the wake of a school board warning against truancy, several thousand white persons jammed an auto race track Wednesday night to protest integration and plan for private schools.

The school board earlier warned that parents could be prosecuted for keeping children out of school.

More than 1,000 white pupils boycotted West End High in Birmingham as two Negroes went to classes for the second day. Wednesday night's rally for private schools was organized by West End white parents.

In most other desegregated schools, attendance was nearly normal and there was little disorder.

A rock smashed into a car carrying the two Negro pupils home from West End, breaking a window. But no one was hurt. The racial scene was generally peaceful at eight other desegregated schools in Birmingham, Mobile, Tuskegee and Huntsville.

With local authorities keeping tight control, the Army announced in Washington that only 675 Alabama National Guardsmen would be held on duty after midnight tonight.

President Kennedy federalized the entire 16,000-man Alabama force early Tuesday to prevent Gov. George C. Wallace from using guardsmen to turn away Negroes at white schools.

SHAW AIR FORCE BASE, S.C. (AP)—The 189th Tactical Reconnaissance Group of Little Rock, Ark., scored 17,370 of a possible 21,850 points to place second among five Air National Guard RB57 reconnaissance bomber groups in combat-simulated competition Wednesday.

Florence State College at Florence quietly accepted the first Negro student Wednesday. He is Wendell Wilkie Gunn.

Integration brought pupil boycotts only in Birmingham and Tuskegee.

About 20 white children showed up for classes at Tuskegee as 13 Negroes attended the formerly white Tuskegee Public School. Normal enrollment is about 550. In Birmingham, attendance was less than 300 at West End which registered 1,442, while about 149 white pupils attended Graymont Elementary where more than 300 were expected.

The Birmingham school board said state laws require children between 7 and 16 to attend some type of school "for the entire length of the school term and every scholastic year."

Unexcused absences could subject parents or guardians to penalties of state laws and "prosecution in the juvenile court," the board said.

Maximum penalty of three months in jail and $500 fine is set by the law. The board said it had no alternative but to report unauthorized absences to public officials and juvenile court.

No mention was made of possible disciplinary action of pupils. Supt. Dr. Theo Wright said earlier in the week that no suspension or expulsion was planned since a federal court ruled that Negro pupils who cut classes to demonstrate against segregation could not be expelled.

Monroe, La. Men Help Polio Victim

By AL SANDNER

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP)—The airplane passenger was a frightened 26-year-old woman being kept alive by an iron lung. With 900 miles to go, the batteries for the lung were failing.

It was the Sunday of Labor Day weekend and a University of Michigan medical team was flying patient Carol Kaufman from Mexico City to Ann Arbor in a twin-engine Beechcraft. News of the flight was revealed Wednesday.

"We had to do something fast, so we set down at Monroe, La.," said equipment engineer Gerald Horn. Only two batteries were left—one half dead and one in reserve for emergencies.

"We didn't have any idea where we were going to find any people—much less batteries," Horn said. "But then two young men working at the airport offered to trade us their car batteries. We got a third from a gas station owner in town. We were really wheeling and dealing there for a while, but we never thought to get their names."

"It was close. By the time we completed the deal, we were already using the emergency battery."

The tawny-haired, brown-eyed student of Spanish and Latin-American studies at Mexico City College was stricken with crippling polio last April.

She could not be moved until the disease passed its critical stage and her breathing pattern stabilized, said Dr. David Dickinson, head of the medical school's polio rehabilitation center.

Carol, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kaufman of Chicago, was taken to Ann Arbor because it is the closest respirator center to Chicago.

No Discrimination in Real Estate

CHICAGO (AP)—The Chicago City Council has adopted an ordinance forbidding racial or religious discrimination by real estate brokers in the sale of property despite a massive protest by white property owners.

The bill was passed by the City Council Wednesday, a few hours after 4,000 white property owners marched on City Hall in protest.

The vote was 30-16 as the usually solid Democratic majority in the council was split.

Some aldermen denounced the bill as "watered down," others as a blow to property rights.

One of the chief opponents of the measure was the Chicago Real Estate Board. Its president, Percy E. Wagner, vowed the ordinance will be tested in the courts.

Divided Highway to Be Opened

The 45-mile section is part of Interstate 30 which is tied to Interstate 40 at North Little Rock and further on to U.S. Highways 67-167, part of which is built to interstate specifications.

Only a small segment within the city limits of Little Rock remains incomplete, but the department said this segment will not interfere with traffic on the main southbound lane of the freeway.

Tax Cut Is Linked to Economy

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—Will federal tax cuts be too little and too late to do the job originally outlined for them—to get the economy growing faster?

Or will they take effect only in time to ease the pains of another recession? One is due in a few months, if you believe the compilers of charts on the length of business cycles.

Tax cuts have taken another step in their slow-motion march from administration idea toward congressional enactment.

Whatever their final effect, each step forward—like their approval Tuesday by the House Ways and Means Committee—gives business an emotional lift.

This usually shows up first in that most mercurial spot, the stock market. On schedule, the committee's action with its promise of lower tax rates in the future for corporation earnings sent stock prices up Tuesday.

The tax cut proposal has been a talking point in market decisions for more than a year now. At the time of the spectacular stock market crash in May 1962 many feared a recession was being foreshadowed. Tax cuts were talked up big as an antidote.

Business didn't follow the stock market downward and the tax cut proposals were delayed until the start of the new Congress this January. As business picked up this spring pressure for quick tax cuts eased.

The congressional path is still a long one. The House must act on its committee's recommendation. Then the Senate will deliberate. The question now is whether it will act this year or next, and whether its timing will be off.

For a tax cut to have any real impact on consumer buying—beyond the psychological one of great expectations—the actual cut in the amount withheld from pay checks for federal taxes must take place. The checks must actually be larger. For business spending plans to be fattened, a cut in corporate income tax rates must be assured by congressional action.

Variety Is Chief Market Feature

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Variety is the chief feature at the nation's supermarkets this weekend. Fruit and vegetable seasons overlap and all meat categories are in full supply at economical prices.

The only major item to show a general increase is eggs, which have risen a cent or two a dozen for most grades and sizes.

Lamb chops are a feature in the Midwest and many Northeastern markets also have lamb specials this weekend.

Pork attractions include loin roasts, chops, hams, sausage and bacon, with some store pushing spareribs for late cookouts.

Beef bargains lean toward roasts, with one national chain offering boneless round roasts at 79 cents a pound. Ground beef is also widely featured and rib steaks are among Midwestern features.

The poultry lineup of small turkeys and fryers was joined this week in some regions by stewing hens.

Among vegetable offerings, a bumper onion crop commands attention.

Other top vegetable buys include corn, cabbage, cucumbers, lettuce, peppers, radishes, tomatoes and cauliflower.

Fruit attractions abound with

Second Death From Tetanus

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The state Health Department reported Wednesday a second death in Arkansas due to tetanus—more commonly known as lockjaw.

Dr. William L. Bunch Jr., director of the department's Division of Communicable Disease Control, said the latest victim was a six-year-old Negro boy at Osceola.

Bunch said Dr. J. E. Beasley, health officer for Osceola and Mississippi County, was urging all persons in the county to immunize themselves against tetanus, diphtheria and whooping cough.

The first tetanus death in the state this year, reported in July, was a 66-year-old Drew County woman, the department said.

W. Memphis Buildings

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Federal Housing Administration said Wednesday it will insure a $638,100 mortgage for construction of six two-story apartment buildings at West Memphis. State FHA director Gailther Johnson said the apartment project would cost about $736,000.

honeydew melons, cantaloup and watermelons still economically priced; toward the end of their marketing season while apples, pears and grapefruit are beginning theirs.

Grapes are still the best fruit buy in most stores, thanks to the very heavy crop.

China Trying to Break Off With Russia

An AP News Analysis By GEORGE SYVERTSEN

MOSCOW (AP)—Red China's current Soviet-baiting campaign apparently is aimed at provoking the Kremlin to break state or party ties with Peking. So far Moscow has not risen to the bait.

Seemingly to sense danger, the Russians are displaying a patience that must be galling to fiery-tempered Premier Khrushchev.

Aside from propaganda attacks linking Khrushchev with the "imperialist enemy," the Red Chinese put on a rowdy two-day demonstration on the Soviet-Chinese border in Siberia last week that outraged the Russians.

The government newspaper Izvestia told its readers Tuesday what it said went on at Nauski, a border point, when the Peking-Moscow Express crossed from China Friday.

Chinese passengers openly displayed contempt for the Russians by defying customs officials, roughing up passersby and—in a crowning indignity—by urinating in the railway station, Izvestia reported.

The impression left by this and other provocative actions by the Chinese in recent months clearly indicates a deliberate attempt to

Poultry Research

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—W. B. Murphy, president of Campbell Soup Co., announced plans Wednesday to build a poultry research laboratory on a 55-acre site. The building would have 7,500-square feet of floor space in the working area and two poultry houses with a total of 18,000-square feet. Murphy said the research center would seek improvements in the quality of frozen cooked poultry products.

infuriate the Russians.

China might want a break in party or even government relations, and hopes to force Moscow to take the step or to give the Chinese the pretext for rupturing relations.

But Soviet propaganda organs in heaping abuse on the Chinese, keep well within guidelines laid down by major party statements on the Soviet-Chinese quarrel.

The major Soviet refrain is the Soviet Union's avowed dedication to peace and its opposition to alleged Chinese demands for war.

Kremlin propaganda chiefs are now believed working on a reply to Peking's virulent charges against Khrushchev last week.

There is speculation in Moscow that the Chinese might be building up to a discussion of Khrushchev's activities as one of Stalin's top lieutenants and other hitherto unpublished details of his career.

REMEMBER

HOW TELEPHONES USED TO LOOK?

Every old telephone here was once the last word in service. But times and telephones change.

Remember when phones needed fixing so often that each one had a door on the front for the repairman's convenience? Today's telephones give many years of trouble-free service.

Remember when you had to talk loud to be heard? Today you can talk on the phone as if the person were sitting next to you.

Remember when technology limited telephones to one color and one model? Today you can have colors and models to suit your own good taste.

Continued development of better styling and engineering of telephones is another improvement made with you in mind. Our never-ending goal is to improve your telephone service and make it more valuable to you.

Jonesboro Plans Industrial Site

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP)—The Jonesboro City Council has approved plans for a 300-acre industrial park on a site adjacent to the municipal airport.
Herbert J. Parker, chairman of the New Industries Committee of the Jonesboro Chamber of Commerce, said the Federal Aviation Agency had given preliminary approval to using 300 acres of the 1,000-acre airport property for the park.
Several industries already are located near the airport.

Youth Become Human Piston

NANCY, France (AP)—A 2-year-old boy became a human piston Tuesday in a fall down a 50-foot pipe. He broke an ankle but the compressed air saved him from more serious injury.
Police said Jean Knochel stepped into an opening of a pipe 11 inches in diameter that houses an elevator counterweight. It took firemen two hours to free him.

Not Quite Ready for Application

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Albert Gore, D-Tenn., who is up for re-election next year, admitted today he was jolted when he received a membership application blank from an organization for retiring persons.

Problems for Kennedy Are Old Ones

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP)—The problems which have suddenly piled up on President Kennedy have been accumulating, seeking solutions, for the greater part of a decade.

They just happened to land in his lap all in a bunch although they seemed invisible to him earlier in the year. There are three: the limited nuclear test-ban treaty, the civil rights bill and Viet Nam.

Just a little over 10 years ago the Russians exploded their first hydrogen bomb.
Since then this country and Russia have set off many atomic explosions, talked of ways to end them, did stop them voluntarily for three years, resumed, and finally this summer decided to agree to stop them except underground.

At this moment, despite all the talking the United States has done to the world about wanting a suspension of tests, Kennedy cannot be absolutely positive the Senate will approve, although it probably will.

It was only nine years ago that the Supreme Court set in motion a whole series of unpredictable events by declaring public school segregation unconstitutional.

It has taken nine years to break down opposition to compliance with the court in every state, even to only a token degree. Mississippi, for instance, has had one university desegregated but no grammar school.

But it was that school decision, which said in effect segregation by its very nature is unconstitutional, that gave Negroes heart and support in demanding an end to all forms of segregation.

The result has been demonstrations, riots, and some progress. Tuesday's feeble effort at defying school desegregation in Alabama by Gov. George C. Wallace, until Kennedy federalized his National Guard, was just an annoyance.

The real drama shifts now to Congress, learning nothing after the civil rights bill which Kennedy offered only late in this session, and then only because he had been pushed into doing so by Negroes' militant demonstrations for civil rights.

It is also nine years since the French, learning nothing after keeping the Vietnamese people in subjection for generations, finally collapsed in their war against the Indochinese Communists and left half the country to them.

To save the rest of Indochina, now called South Viet Nam, and the rest of Southeast Asia from communism, the United States has had to help with men and supplies and money, supporting the government of President Ngo Dinh Diem.

He has run it as a dictatorship. The United States didn't get tough but just played the role of willing helper in the fight against the Reds. It will against Diem has been piling up in Viet Nam.

His recent repressions, against Buddhists and students, rocked his hold, showed diminishing public confidence in the Diem regime. But the United States still backs him, still is afraid to get tough. Kennedy said this week the United States must pursue a policy of patience in Viet Nam and avoid getting tough because that might collapse the government and open all Viet Nam and Southeast Asia to communism.

Details of Break Went for Naught

LAKE PROVIDENCE, La. (AP)—A detailed plan for a jailbreak went for naught over the weekend when authorities intercepted a collection of letters and diagrams, Sheriff J. W. Gilbert said today.

The sheriff disclosed the thwarted plot after three prisoners involved left his jail for Arkansas, where they face charges.

Until they left, Gilbert kept a 24-hour guard around the courthouse—just in case.

Gilbert said the plan—outlined in two letters and a diagram a convict tried to smuggle out of the jail—called for:

1. The three prisoners to make ropes out of bedsheets and lower them to the ground.
2. Accomplices to tie a bundle of guns to the bedsheets ropes.
3. The prisoners to raise the guns into their cells, then force their way out of the jail.

Gilbert identified the prisoners as Dr. Ezra Leroy Callahan, 44, of De Queen, Ark.; David Roden, 43 of North Carolina and June Nell Watson Skelton 33, of Broken Bow, Okla.

The three were arrested here about three weeks ago on charges of possession of narcotics, illegal weapons and burglary tools.

Arkansas authorities wanted the two men in connection with the Board Approves Baptist Budget

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The executive board of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention approved a proposed 1964 budget of $2,006,035 Tuesday, $106,835 more than the current budget.
It included $1,136,382 for Ouachita Baptist College at Arkadelphia, Arkansas Baptist College at Walnut Ridge, Arkansas Baptist Hospital at Little Rock, and the state headquarters; $706,652 for Southern Baptist Convention on causes and out-of-state institutions and $73,000 for capital needs.
The budget is subject to approval of the convention, which meets Nov. 5-7 in Little Rock.

Convention to Open

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—The Arkansas Telephone Association opens its three-day convention at Hot Springs Monday with Roy K. Moore, special agent in charge of the Little Rock office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation as principal speaker. The ATA is comprised of the 54 telephone companies operating in Arkansas. R. L. Thompson, Fort Smith, is president.

fatal shooting of James Henry Wallace, 30, at Texarkana, last July 4, Gilbert said. The Skelton woman also was wanted in Arkansas, the sheriff said, but didn't specify the charge.

The sheriff declined to say if the intercepted escape plans identified the would-be accomplices outside the jail.

DOROTHY DIX

COULD IT BE JEALOUSY
By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: You published a letter from a selfish daughter whose Dad came first because he spoiled her. Reading between the lines I gathered Mother was tired, pudgy and drab—too nervous to lose weight and with no time to fix up.

My daughter was a carbon copy of that girl. The first thing she said when she saw my new kitchen was, "Mother, you need more work space." And the new pans: "Mother, don't tell me you have to polish them every day!"

When we visited her, after a six-hour drive, I was expected to do the dinner dishes, bathe the grandchildren and dress them in the morning, yet my husband saw nothing amiss.

Fathers spoil daughters. When daughter grows up she naturally loves Dad more than Mom. Yet, Mom, being his wife, should come first. I used to keep quiet, then cry and get sick.

Now I speak up and everything is fine. Dad and I UNDERSTAND love one another and daughter no longer comes between us. I never wrote a letter like this before but in doing so maybe it will help the mothers of interfering, selfish, jealous daughters. —One Who Learned

Dear Learned: Fathers are inclined to spoil their daughters, I agree. The corollary which you didn't mention, is also true: that mothers often indulge their sons. But even at the risk of losing the popularity contest (which many immature parents can't bear to do) the mother or the father, as the case may be, should try to offset the indulgences of the other parent.

Regardless of one another's attitude, they should make a united effort to adhere to the basic rules of child rearing.
If your daughter is selfish—and I don't think it's selfishness so much as lack of consideration and manners — then you must share the blame with your husband. Self-respect is a desirable characteristic in children by example. Many mothers have a martyr complex. They actually become slaves to their children and then enjoy complaining about their lot.
How do you know that your daughter "expected" you to do the dishes and take care of the grandchildren? Did she ask you to do these things directly? I can't help feeling that this is a reflection on the way you brought her up. Whatever your daughter's shortcomings, she'll gain a new appreciation of you when she, herself, starts to suffer the trials and tribulations of parenthood.

Dear Helen: I love my husband by my second marriage and feel we had something very wonderful together in the beginning, but the problem of two sets of children with different backgrounds looms large. Is there any future with a husband who says, "My children come first," and means it? I enjoy your column, your personal views and the bits you write about yourself. —Realist
Dear Realist: Yes, you and your husband have a future, but it would be a far better one if you could both recapture that "something very wonderful" you shared in the beginning. Barring that, you had better have a heart-to-heart discussion about the equal rights of all your children.

Dear Helen: I am legally separated from my husband, whereabouts unknown. Our two children and I live with my parents. The only money we have is the $10 a week I earn for babysitting and $17.50 bi-monthly welfare check for the children.

The kids are with me wherever I go, save for the one night a week Mama keeps them. I've started dating a man one year older than I. I'm 22. He loves the children and me but Mama insists him because his wife is divorcing him and when we go out she waits up to give me a tongue-lashing. I feel this is an invasion of my privacy. My father says what I do is my own business. Please help me. —Discouraged

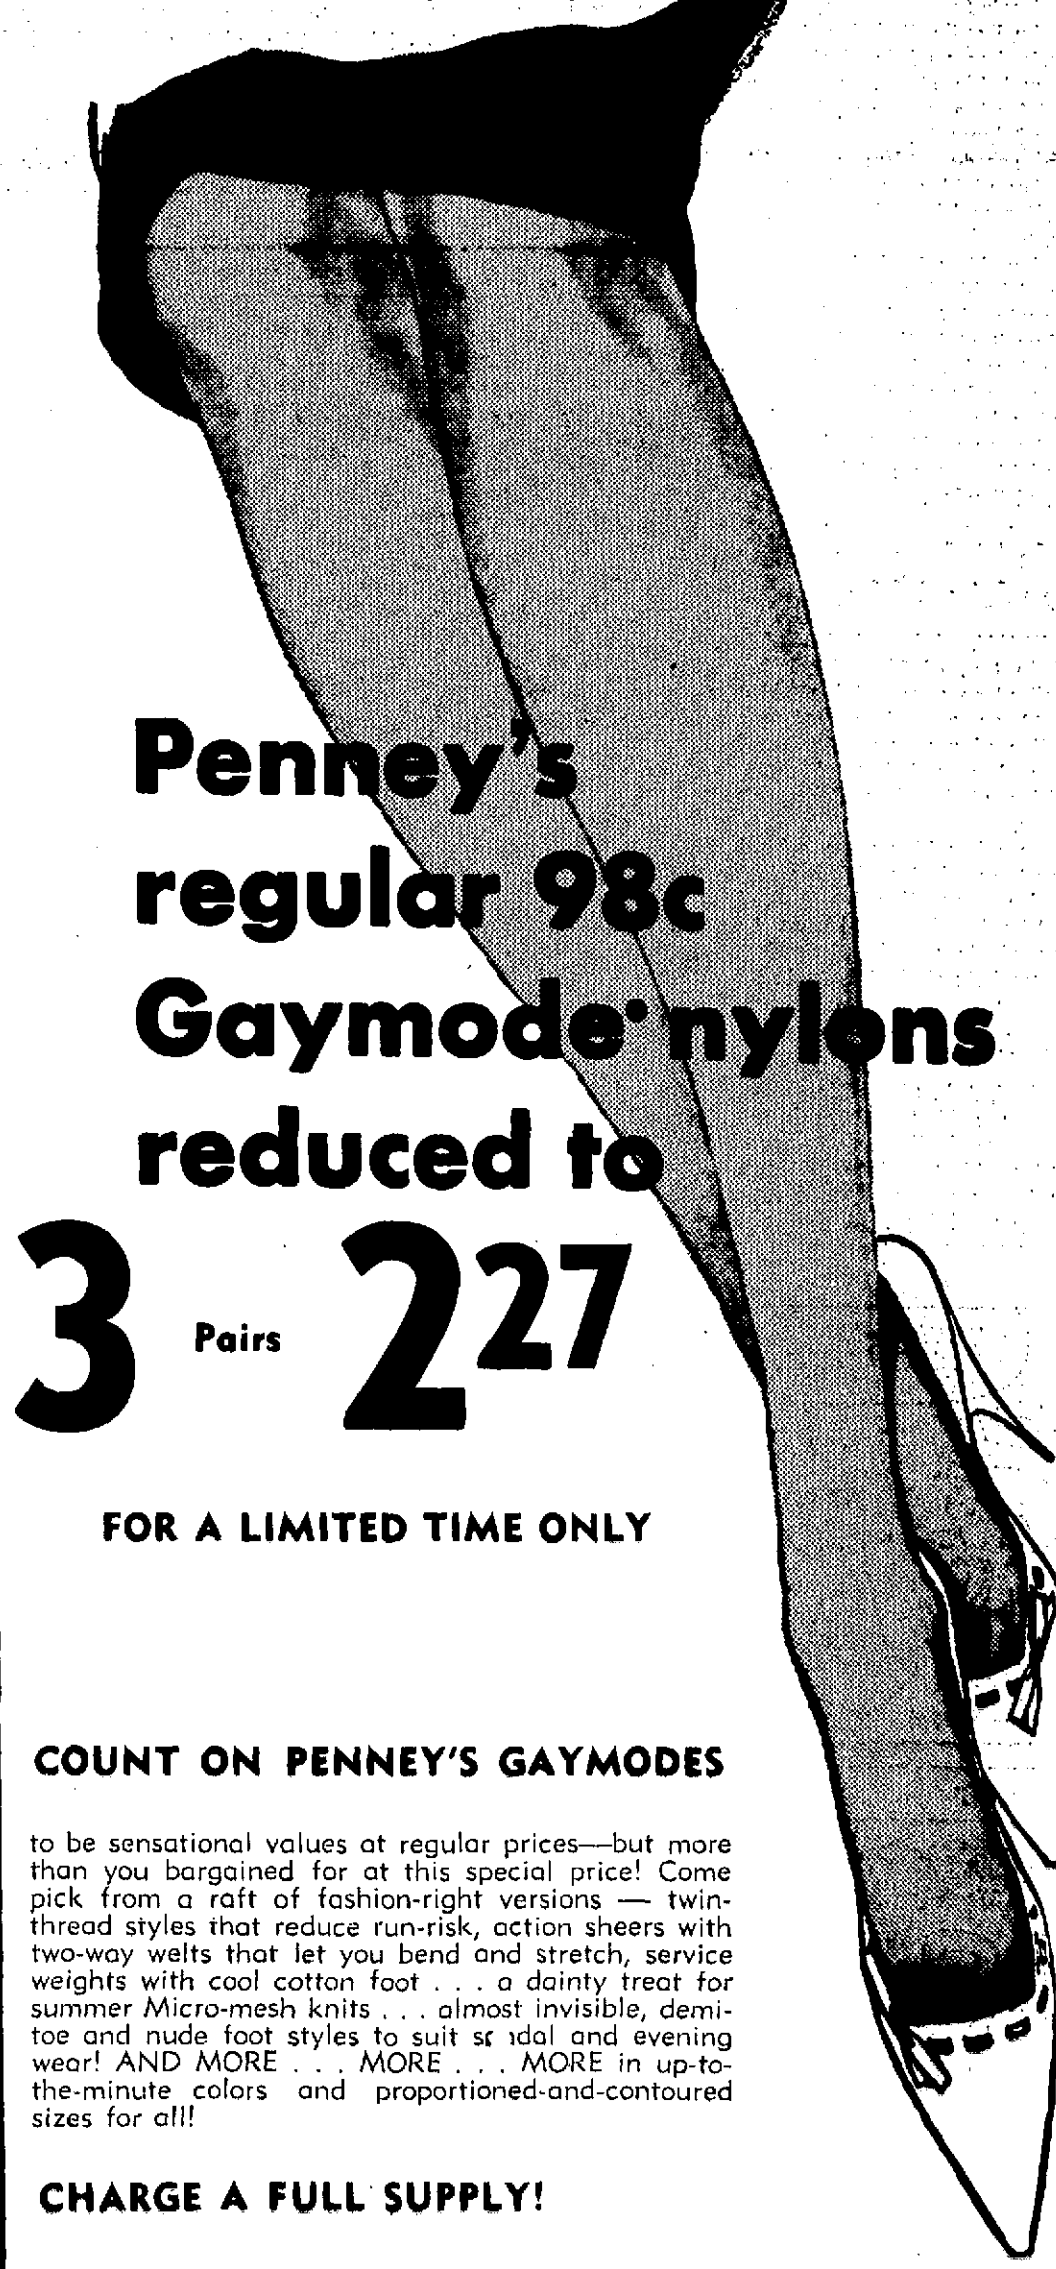

Dear Discouraged: Your father is right. Try to get him to convince your mother that she not only is not accomplishing anything, but is being extremely rude and unreasonable. But don't forget—your future with this man is dependent on two divorces—yours and his.

Have you a problem? Perhaps Helen Worden Erskine can help you. Write her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Yanks Openly Favor Dodgers in Flag Race

By JIM BECKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The New York Yankees are openly favoring the Los Angeles Dodgers for the National League flag in the battle with the St. Louis Cardinals.

They figure a World Series with the Dodgers will be worth some $6,000 a man more than one with the Cardinals. The arithmetic is simple. There are some 55,000 seats in O'Malley's house in Los Angeles, and all within naked eye distance of home plate are called boxes, at $12 a copy. St. Louis has only 30,000 seats, few in the $12 class.

The Yankees moved a step closer to their own annual American League pennant-clinching party by whipping the Kansas City Athletics 8-2 Wednesday night. Mickey Mantle smacked a three-run homer in the first inning and added a single and double. Whitey Ford won his 22nd game. Joe Pepitone also hit a two-run homer.

The second-place Minnesota Twins also won, 9-3, over Cleveland. That left the magic number at three.

In other AL action, the Chicago White Sox edged Baltimore 3-2, Washington trimmed Detroit 6-5 in 10 innings and Aubrey Galewood pitched a four-hitter in his major league debut as the Los Angeles Angels defeated Boston 4-1.

In the National League, the Dodgers kept their three-game lead with a 9-4 victory over Pittsburgh, and the Cardinals kept pace with a 4-0 decision over the Chicago Cubs. Cincinnati crushed Milwaukee 14-3, Houston defeated Philadelphia 4-2 and the New York Mets trimmed the San Francisco Giants 4-2.

Harmon Killebrew hit his 38th homer - a grand slammer - and Earl Batley hit his 25th homer as Minnesota stayed one-half game ahead of the White Sox in their battle for second place.

Eddie Fisher went the distance for the White Sox against Baltimore, winning his eighth with a three-hitter. Dave Nicholson homered for the Sox. Camilo Carreon also homered.

Dick Phillips led off the 10th inning with his 10th homer for the Washington victory. Dick McAuliffe homered for the Tigers.

Galewood, 25, a right-hander just up from Memphis, lost his shutout bid in the ninth when Dick Stuart tripled and scored on Russ Nixon's sacrifice fly.

Home runs - Stuart Boston, and Killebrew Minnesota, 38. Stolen bases - Aparicio Baltimore, 38; Hinton, Washington, 23. Pitching (15 decisions) - Bouton, New York 19-6 .760; Ford New York, 22-7 .759.

ATLANTA (AP) - The International League Governors' Cup series moves here tonight with the Indianapolis Indians holding a 2-1 lead over the Atlanta Crackers in the best-of-seven playoff.

Atlanta edged the Indians 5-4 at Indianapolis Wednesday night after holding a 5-4 lead in the ninth inning. Phil Gagliano saved the game for the Crackers with a brilliant play.

This Team Best, Giant Coach Thinks

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Coach Allie Sherman stoutly maintains that his New York Giants are sound, in fact "we might have the best team in the last three years."

But the coach of the defending Eastern Division champions in the National League made a move that indicates he's far from overconfident in talent going into the weekend opener against Baltimore.

Sherman, whose Giants won just two of five exhibition games, dropped Jim Pace, a halfback, from the roster Wednesday. That put the Giants one man under the 37-player roster limit.

"It will give us a little room to pick up a player elsewhere if we desire," Sherman explained. Baltimore, which lost only once in five exhibitions - and that with Johnny Unitas out of action - is a slight favorite. Unitas sat out the final exhibition with a sore shoulder but is reported ready for full time action against the Giants.

The Green Bay Packers, defending league champions, are reported at full strength for their opener against the Chicago Bears. They bolstered their defensive secondary Wednesday with the acquisition of halfback Jerry Norton from Dallas. The Bears also are expected to be at full strength.

There is some doubt about San Francisco's troubled 49ers, however. John Brodie, their No. 1 quarterback, has an injured throwing arm and his status is undetermined for the opener against ambitious Minnesota.

The season opens with two Saturday night games, St. Louis at Dallas and Detroit at Los Angeles.

Sunday, New York is at Baltimore, Washington at Cleveland, Minnesota at San Francisco and Pittsburgh at Philadelphia.

The American Football League, in its second week of regular season play, has Boston at San Diego and Denver at Houston in Saturday night games and Buffalo at Oakland Sunday.

Nervous Over Appearance With Benny

By JAMES BACON
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) - Billy Graham, who has calmly faced millions in person and on television, is nervous - he's going to trade jokes with Jack Benny.

"And he's not half as nervous as I am," says Benny, who once had former President Harry S. Truman as a guest on his CBS-TV show.

Benny, who is Jewish, was on the platform with the evangelist last Sunday night when 134,254 people jammed Los Angeles Coliseum for the windup of the Graham crusade.

Dr. Graham will tape the show Friday for airing Sept. 24. "I have been on all kinds of television programs but usually just as a guest being interviewed," says Graham. "I've never been a comedian before."

"When Jack asked me, I accepted because he is such a wonderful man, a man of great character who has given so much of his time and talent to make the world forget its troubles."

"I told him that I have been a fan of his

Morrillon Is Picked to Down Bobcats

By BILL SIMMONS
Associated Press Staff Writer

About half of what a coach tells a newsman about his football team seems—to the newsman—to be intended for other coaches' ears, and not solely in the interest of informing the public.

Propaganda, we call it.

At this stage of this football season, there's little else to go on, so we plead for your pardon should these first predictions prove to be more than a little unsound.

First, the Big Ten Conference teams:

BLYTHEVILLE 20. Searcy 0. The Chickasaws will be making their 1963 debut, and Searcy already has taken one on the chin—a 22-6 thumping from Benton. We figure Blytheville's offense is about equal to Benton's, but the Chicks are better on defense. Gary Overstreet and his Searcy teammates may fool us, though.

EL DORADO 24. Smackover 13. This "little" El Dorado doesn't lack for size, and has good experience and depth. Smackover will be up for the game, the opener for both teams, but the Buckaroos will be running against one of the better teams in a better Big Ten league.

FORT SMITH 24. Van Buren 7. Coach Bill Stancil to the contrary, that Fort Smith line makes the Grizzlies tough, and the Pointers are every so young.

NORTH LITTLE ROCK 14. Subiaco 7. Giving the nod to Ken Stephens' first edition of the Wildcats, and believing they won't lose the ones they should win, anyone.

LITTLE ROCK HALL 14. Little Rock Catholic 13. The coaches are friendly neighbors, the schools are only a couple of blocks apart and the teams are about equally good. Catholic 14, Hall 13 is just as likely.

PINE BLUFF 20. Texarkana 10. Texarkana came out slugging against Hope last week. The Razorbacks could win this one, lose it, rest and count it a successful season. They should be high. Pine Bluff's Gordon Norwood remains the deadliest one football player in the state's high schools, but the Zebras didn't look like the world-beaters they're supposed to be last week. But this is Pine Bluff's Big Ten opener, and more than just fun is involved from here on in.

LITTLE ROCK CENTRAL 19. Benton 6. Benton has speed and one game under its belt, but Central has faster speed and more of it.

The Trojans will get triumph No. 2.

Now, into the Class AA regions: Fayetteville 14, Harrison 6. The Gobblins lose their second one.

Rogers 21, Siloam Springs 7. The momentum from a perfect year last season, though Siloam Springs look good against Fort Smith Southside's sophomore team.

Springdale 7, Bentonville 6. The difference in size.

Forrest City 14, Conway 0. A rebuilding year for the Wampus.

$163,187 Race at N.Y. Track

YONKERS N.Y. (AP)—Overtrick, Mrs. Leonard J. Buck's fast stepping colt, starts from the unfavorable No. 12 post position in tonight's $163,187 Cane Futurity at Yonkers Raceway. But nevertheless he's the 8-5 choice to take the measure of 10 other 3-year-old colts and one filly in the first jewel of the Triple Crown for pacing.

The lone filly in the field is Richard Downing's Timely Beauty, who set a world record for juvenile fillies when she went a mile in 1:57 1/5 against the fence at Lexington, Ky., last fall.

Meadow Skipper, purchased by Norman Woolworth of Winthrop, Maine for $100,000 in June, is the second choice at 5-2 with the Bill Houghton-trained entry of Chapel Chief and Steady Beau also well regarded.

Rounding out the field are the Stanley Dancer entry of Sly Yankee and William Time Armbrule, Fly Fly Byrd, James B. Hanover, Meadow Russ and Rex Pick.

LIMA, Peru—Robert Davila, 201, Peru, knocked out Herb Siler, 204 Miami Fla. 10.

TRENTON N.J.—Mel Collins, 156, Trenton N.J., outpointed Lenny Campbell, 152 1/2 Newark, N.J. 8.

Cats, and that 20-0 decision last week didn't do Forrest City justice.

Paragould 13. Helena 7. Paragould has a rude reception for the Indians' opener. It will be victory No. 2 for Paragould.

Stuttgart 14. West Memphis 12. The Ricebirds didn't fold against Pine Bluff last week, and West Memphis took a surprising 3-0 loss against Marianna. The Blue Devils are quick, and should come back strong, but we think Stuttgart is more determined.

Newport 10. Wynne 6. The Greyhounds will have to scramble to beat the school with the smallest enrollment in the state in Class AA.

Mabelvale 20. Jacksonville 14. Bill Pitts' running gives the Lions an edge over a slightly sluggish Red Devil offense.

Morrilton 13. Hope 7. Hope didn't fare badly against Texarkana, but Morrilton is supposed to be strong this year.

Russellville 14. Atkins 7. Ronnie South can't help Russellville anymore, but the Cyclone won't need him for this one.

Bryant 7. Sylvan Hills 0. Sylvan Hills struggled to a three-point victory over Joe T. Robinson last week. We think Bryant can do better.

Camden Fairview 20. Camden 14. Fairview is coming off its first championship in Region 4AA.

Crossett 13. Monticello 0. The Eagles slipped past Eudora, that sometimes-Titan of the Class A ranks, and Monticello will get the same treatment.

Magnolia 14. Malvern 7. Malvern managed only a tie with Prescott last week.

Yanks Credit Flag Drive to Pep Talks

NEW YORK (AP)—The record books will say the New York Yankees won the 1963 American League pennant in mid-September but manager Ralph Houk and his players know better.

The championship was won one June afternoon shortly after the crippling injury to Mickey Mantle that sidelined the Yankee club leader for most of the remainder of the season.

The club was then in third place. The next day Houk called a meeting. A member of the Yankee family revealed what took place at this closed door session.

"This scared talk has got to stop," Houk was quoted as saying. "I am as concerned about Mantle's injury as much as any of you but I say we're strong enough to win without him."

"No one appreciates more than I do what Mickey means to us but this is not a one-man team. Every one of you is a vital part of this club. Mick's absence merely gives you a chance to prove it. I don't say it will be easy—no club can lose a Mantle and not feel it—but we're a heck of a lot better than any of the other clubs even without him."

The Yankee manager went down the line, addressing each player individually, pitting each against his counterpart on the Yankees' chief rivals.

"You're all the best at your positions," Houk flatly concluded. For several seconds there was no answer. Then the quiet was broken by left-hander Whitey Ford.

"Let's go, guys," he shouted. "What are we waiting for? We've got work to do."

That was the answer Houk wanted. The Yankees, with Ford pitching, whipped Detroit that night and went on to win 10 of their next 11.

Perry With 49ers on Parttime Basis

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Joe "The Jet" Perry, professional football's all-time rushing leader is back with the San Francisco 49ers—though only on a part-time basis.

Perry, released Wednesday by the Baltimore Colts, has signed with San Francisco as a "taxi" member.

"Taxis" are a genus of "red-shirt alumni," who do not hold regular spots on the roster, but who are brought up in case of injury to a regular player.

Texas Writer Hangs Spot on the Porkers

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sport Writer

In the past four years, only one team besides Texas and Arkansas has figured in the Southwest Conference football championship.

Texas Christian tied Arkansas and Texas for the title in 1959. In 1960 Arkansas won it and Texas tied Baylor and Rice for second, in 1961 Arkansas and Texas tied for it and last fall Texas won it with Arkansas second.

Texas and Arkansas come up with their most experienced teams under Darrell Royal and Frank Broyles respectively, so don't pick anybody to win the title except Texas and Arkansas.

There is talk that TCU and Rice will be strong and could win the title. But it seems unlikely that TCU and Rice could have made so much progress.

Rice lacks veteran strength. Texas Christian needs an experienced quarterback.

Royal always has said that a team has to have a lot of seniors to be good. He has 17 senior lettermen this year.

Royal has said he can't imagine getting the breaks as he did last year, like Arkansas fumbling at the goal line to lose the big game. Yet, in his own book he says "luck is what happens when preparation meets with opportunity."

Arkansas' Danny Brabham didn't fumble on his own. Pat Culpepper and Johnny Treadwell hit him at the same time. Texas knew how this situation could be handled and luck happened when preparation met opportunity.

Broyles has tried to figure out some way to get his team off the spot. He came up with this: "With the new substitution rule I have to coach my boys both ways."

This should be a real handicap since the boys wouldn't be finding out until now that there was anything besides defense or offense, whichever they were interested in. Also, wouldn't every football squad in the country be facing the same situation?

Of course, these coaches are quite sincere in figuring out what might happen. But you can't pick the finish of a football race that way. You must consider the ability of the teams and figure whether they have more than the opposition.

Arkansas is favored in the schedule if that means anything. The Razorbacks get both Texas and Texas Christian at home and play Rice on the road. Texas gets Rice and TCU at home and plays Arkansas on the road.

Arkansas hasn't been able to beat Texas at home since 1955. Texas Christian plays Arkansas and Texas on the road and Rice plays Texas and TCU on the road.

In 28 years the sports writers have been able to pick the winner only five times. That's .178 per cent. Thus the following selection of the conference finish has no guarantee:

1. Arkansas.
2. Texas.
3. Texas Christian.
4. Rice.
5. Baylor.
6. Texas A&M.
7. Southern Methodist.
8. Texas Tech.

Spokane Evens Up Playoff

SPOKANE (AP)—Third baseman John Werhas lofted a pair of long fly balls to center field Wednesday night to give the Spokane Indians a 3-2 edge over the Oklahoma City 89ers.

The decision evened up the best-of-seven series for the Pacific Coast League baseball championship at one game each.

Werhas brought home the winning run in the bottom of the ninth with a blast that arched 370 feet and fell to the ground while the helpless 89ers looked on. They saved themselves the trouble of trying to catch it because with the bases loaded and only one out the run would have scored any how.

Sikes Remains in Amateur Title Running

DES MOINES, Iowa (AP)—Sixteen golfers went into the first of two 18-hole rounds in the U.S. Amateur Golf championship today, but absent from the group was the defending champion, Labron Harris Jr.

Harris was eliminated Wednesday by Walter Stahl of Cleveland, 2 and 1.

Billy Joe Patton, another veteran of amateur international golf, was knocked out of contention by Bob Greenwood of North Texas State.

In today's fifth round over the 6,896-yard par 72 Wakonda Club Course, Bill Campbell, 40, of Huntington, W. Va. meets John Owens 36 of Lexington Ky. It is Campbell's 20th time in the National Amateur.

John Lotz, 22, of San Jose State meets George Archer, 23, the Gilroy, Calif. cowpoke; Dr. Phillip Olson of Minneapolis plays Steve Spray 22, of Indianapolis, Iowa; 1960 king Deane Beman goes against Barry Meerdink, 23, of Muscatine, Iowa; Stahl against Southern California U.S. Davie Stockton; Ed Tutwiler of Charleston, W. Va., against NCAA champ Dick Sikes of Arkansas; two-time winner Charlie Coe against Texas U.S. Jimmy Thompson; and Ross Mitchell of Lubbock, Tex., against Dick Guardiola of Cleveland.

Cards Manage to Keep Pace With Dodgers

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

The St. Louis Cardinals' Ray Sadecki and Ron Taylor combined for a five-hit, 4-0 job against the Chicago Cubs Wednesday night that kept second-place St. Louis three games behind the Los Angeles Dodgers with their third straight shutout.

The win extended the Cardinals' streak to five games while producing the 14th victory in the last 13 games.

While the Cardinals kept up the pressure, Maury Wills applied some for the Dodgers against Pittsburgh, stroking four hits, starting three rallies and driving in two runs as Los Angeles maintained its grip on the top spot by belting the Pirates 9-4.

In other NL action, Vada Pinson collected two homers, including his 1,000th major league hit, and Gordy Coleman hit a grand slam in Cincinnati's 14-3 thumping of Milwaukee. Houston's Dick Parrrell four-hit Philadelphia 4-2 and the New York Mets defeated San Francisco 4-2.

The American League leading New York Yankees whipped Kansas City 8-2, Minnesota belted Cleveland 9-3, the Chicago White Sox edged Baltimore 3-2, Washington nipped Detroit 6-5 in 10 innings and the Los Angeles Angels defeated Boston 4-1.

Sadecki, 9-8, started against Cub ace Dick Ellsworth, 20-9, allowing only four hits in 5 2/3 innings, but was bothered by periodic wildness and Manager Johnny Keane decided to bring in Taylor. Taylor allowed only a single the rest of the way.

Wills led off the first and third innings for the Dodgers with singles and each time stole second and scored. Wills also drove in two of three Los Angeles runs in the fourth.

Don Drysdale started for the Dodgers but gave way to Pete Richert, who in turn needed Ron Perranoski's relief help. Richert, tagged for a homer by Smokey Burgess, got the victory for a 4-1 record. Bob Veale, 2-2, took the loss.

Jim Maloney won his 22nd game as the Reds pounded the Braves. The Cubs won when rookie Jim Wynn hit a two-run homer that snapped a 2-2 tie against the Phillies.

The Mets got the job done against the Giants as Al Jackson pitched a seven-hitter and Tim Lincecum cracked three singles.

Injured Porks Look Bad to Broyles

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—The University of Arkansas football team put the emphasis on defense Wednesday, and the defenses got rattled by the offenses.

Jon Brittenum and Gordon Guest piloted the offenses, and the defenses fared so poorly that coach Frank Broyles had only one comment:

"See the defensive coaches. I'm too blue to talk."

Jim Mackenzie, head defensive coach, said at times "we showed signs of having some hitters, but it looked like there was no one to take over, no leadership."

Sidelined by injury were: Guards Tommy Brasher, Gary Howard and Mike Hales, quarterback Fred Marshall, end Jim John, tackle Buddy Tackett and wingback George Walker.

Hales re-injured his knee during the morning workout Wednesday and will miss practice the rest of this week.

gress should consider allowing duck stamp funds to be used to dam Canadian streams where waterfowl nest.

The law now restricts use of such funds to land acquisition.

Jensen said he hoped arrangements could be made to insure that "ducks hatched in Canada would survive to a greater extent than survive under present conditions."

Lieblong in Defense of Rockefeller

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP)—Warren Lieblong of Pine Bluff, unsuccessful Republican candidate for Congress last November, issued a statement today defending Winthrop Rockefeller's work in the state party and lashing at Rockefeller's critics.

"We need men like Rockefeller in our party," Lieblong said, "men who are for building the party and not interested in just national patronage."

He said the party also needs men like state Chairman William Spicer of Fort Smith and former gubernatorial candidate Henry Britt of Hot Springs. "But we don't need their criticism."

Spicer and Britt said Monday night in Little Rock that the state GOP had made no real progress under the leadership of National Committeeman Rockefeller.

"Some of the people who have complained about how we did in last year's election didn't help in the campaign either through contributions or work," Lieblong said. He added that Rockefeller is a loyal Republican "regardless of the personalities involved."

Rockefeller has been limited by the GOP state committee to the duties of national committeeman because, some leaders said, he overstepped his authority.

Lieblong said Rockefeller did not try to lead the Jefferson County GOP organization and that he had not initiated a political survey in Jefferson County as Spicer charged Monday night.

"We want the credit or blame for something we did here," Lieblong said. "We instigated the survey here during the time I was chairman of the central committee and instigated the survey over the rest of the state. The only contact with Mr. Rockefeller was to get his office to spread the word around the state for reciprocal workers. We didn't get any help from Fort Smith or Garland County."

Precautionary Plane Landing

BRIXHAM, England (AP)—Queen Elizabeth's husband, Prince Philip, made a precautionary landing in a navy helicopter Tuesday night. He wasn't hurt.

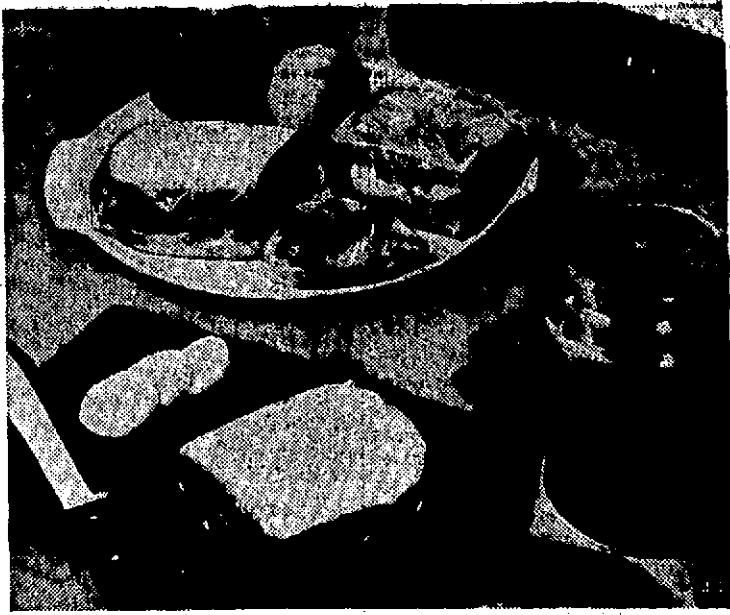

The prince noted oil pressure was low and decided to land while flying from this Devonshire port to catch a plane to Scotland.

No Engine, Will Fly 2,000 Miles

LONDON (AP)—A World War II fighter pilot today announced plans to fly 2,000 miles from Greenland to the Irish Republic without an engine.

Wing Commander C.J. Donovan of the Royal Air Force said he hopes to make the trip next summer in a specially constructed glider.

Back-To-School Lunches

The annual back-to-school season brings a flurry of activity to every household with school-age children. There's lots of shopping and planning to do to ready the youngsters for the busy year ahead.

As the school year settles down into a normal routine, one of the first things to lose its sparkle is the school-day lunch. Lunchtime can be a real problem in those areas which do not have school food service, for lunch must be brought from home. It takes ingenuity to plan varied noontime school meals day after day which satisfy food energy and nutritional requirements, yet appeal to youthful appetites at the same time.

Modern food wraps, such as Handi-Wrap plastic lunchbox wrap, help to solve lunch-packing problems. A wrap which protects flavor and freshness, provides leak-proof protection and allows you to see clearly what's inside is one of the handiest "school supplies" on your kitchen shelf.

Here are some lunch-packing tips from Handi-Wrap to help you pack a more satisfying school lunch:

* Children between six and 10 years old require 1700-2100 calories per day, depending on height, weight, body structure and activity. One-third of these food requirements should be met by the school lunch.

* Avoid bulky sandwiches and heavy foods in a packed school lunch—these are more likely to end up in the waste basket. Cut sandwiches in small sections and peel, section and wrap fruit separately for ease of eating.

* Include nutritious snacks in the lunchbox to discourage children from too many sweets. Such foods as dried prunes, raisins, peanuts, corn chips, tomato slices, carrot sticks, celery, cereal cookies or cereal snacks are healthful and pleasing.

* Pattern a packed lunch after the Type A school lunch meal which includes:

1/2 pint whole milk

2 ounces meat, fish, poultry or cheese or 1/4 cup cooked dried beans, peas or soy beans or 1/4 cup peanut butter

6 ounces or 3/4 cup of raw, cooked or processed vegetable or fruit

1 serving bread, muffin or other hot bread made of whole wheat or enriched cereal

2 teaspoons butter or fortified margarine

143,500 Arkansans Get Free Food

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Welfare Department said Tuesday that 2,584,482 pounds of federal surplus commodities were distributed to 143,500 Arkansans adults and children last month.

The department said that another 1,096,489 pounds of surplus foods was distributed among 996 schools; 5,458 pounds to 13 summer camps; and 141,364 pounds to 82 other institutions.

Welfare clients in 63 counties took part in the program receiving goods the department said were worth $1,056,495.

Faubus, Rockefeller

WALNUT RIDGE, Ark. (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus will speak Thursday at a meeting of Soil Conservation supervisors from 11 counties and Winthrop Rockefeller, Republican national committeeman, will also speak Thursday night at a civic club meeting. Rockefeller also is scheduled to confer with Republican committeemen in the area.

Symposium on Hospital Work

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A two-day symposium on professional hospital techniques and procedures begins today in Little Rock.

Speakers include Clyde Nevill, administrator of the Community Methodist Hospital of Paragould, and representatives of four Little Rock hospitals.

The symposium is sponsored by the Arkansas Hospital Association and the American Sterilizer Co. of Erie, Pa.

Ben Bella Will Rule Algerians

Leaders of the ruling National Liberation Front named Ben Bella the only presidential candidate Tuesday.

Wallace Agrees to Talk in L.R.

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Eugene (Bull) Connor, former public safety commissioner of Birmingham, Ala., said Tuesday night that Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace had agreed by telephone to accept an invitation to speak at Little Rock.

The invitation was issued by the Capital Citizens Council, which sponsored a meeting Tuesday night at which Connor spoke.

No date was set for Wallace's visit.

Mafia Having Internal Fight

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

PALERMO, Sicily (AP)—Police say the bullet-riddled bodies of three rival Mafia chieftains indicate internal warfare will grow within Sicily's secret criminal society.

The bodies were found Tuesday night in fields near Palermo. Investigators said the two rival gangs apparently met by accident while trying to escape a police dragnet. The two factions opened fire on each other.

Doubtful Donna Is Interested

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Herber Springs Chamber of Commerce has notified that state Publicity and Parks Commission that it wants Donna Axum of El Dorado, the new Miss America, to attend the dedication of Greers Ferry Dam next month.

President Kennedy is expected to be the main guest.

Bob Evans, director of the commission, said it was doubtful

Negroes and Whites Clash in Carolina

HIGH POINT, N.C. (AP)—Hundreds of Negroes and whites confronted each other twice Tuesday night as this city's antisegregation movement continued to grow.

Police said a Negro policeman was injured slightly by a stone thrown by a white man. There were reports of several rock-throwing incidents on the outskirts of two demonstrations.

The city's 80-man police force, about two dozen sheriff's deputies and 18 state troopers forcibly restrained 2,000 whites from attacking nearly 700 Negroes during the first march.

Later, about 400 Negroes and a few white demonstrators were met at a main street intersection by a smaller group of whites. Police rushed into the intersection and kept the groups apart.

The second group marched to the city-county building and conducted a brief prayer and song service, then dispersed.

The Rev. B. Elton Cox, a field representative for the Congress of Racial Equality, rejected a request from city officials to call off nightly demonstrations, which led to the arrest of 364 Negroes Monday night. He said any suspension of demonstrations might imply that Negroes are not sincere in their demands for total integration.

whether Donna would be there.

"The people in charge of Miss America say that she plays second fiddle to no one," Evans said.

Coffee-Flavored Viennese Velvet

Once in a great while, you discover a recipe so distinctive, so superb that you run short of adjectives! Such a confection is Viennese Velvet. It sounds so simple and is, in fact, so easy to make that you'll have to taste it to believe it. Hot coffee, rich vanilla ice cream, a few finishing touches—that's all there is to it. But you can be sure that the result will "bring down the house" each time you serve it.

Make certain that the ice cream is first-rate, the coffee robust and freshly brewed. Pour more double-strength coffee into demitasse cups. Then don't say we didn't warn you—you may be making Viennese Velvet on a nightly basis!

Viennese Velvet

1 quart vanilla ice cream
6 cups double-strength coffee, hot or cold
Whipped Cream

Place one large scoop of vanilla ice cream in each of six tall glasses. Pour hot or cold double-strength coffee carefully over ice cream until glass is about 3/4 full. Add a second scoop of ice cream and fill glass with coffee. Garnish with whipped cream, and add a sprinkle of nutmeg if desired. You will need long spoons for the first half of this dessert-beverage, but you will drink the latter half.

Nine TB Grants

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Tuberculosis Association has given grants to nine Arkansas students for attendance at nursing schools. They are Delores Atkinson of Beebe, Charlene Clay of Searcy, Marilyn Sue Deering of Little Rock, Benigna Henkel of Helena, Sharon Quandt of Russellville, Jerry C. Grimes and Tommie Sue Keeton of El Dorado and Sonja Sherrill Hunt and Marsha Lamont of North Little Rock.

Desha Approves a New Hospital

ARKANSAS CITY, Ark. (AP)—Desha County voters approved a new hospital for McGehee and an addition to the Dumas hospital in a bond election Tuesday, but turned down a new jail and renovation of the courthouse at Arkansas City.

The hospital proposals passed 2,201 to 585 and the three-mill tax to implement them passed 1,124 to 610. A 25-bed hospital at McGehee will cost $240,000 in bond issues money and the enlargement of the Dumas hospital from 37 to 40 beds will cost $160,000 in bond issues money.

Federal matching money is expected for both projects.

The jail proposal was turned down 1,360 to 1,276 and the courthouse plan was defeated 1,355 to 1,253. Taxes to implement bond issues for those proposals also were beaten.

Robbery Search Goes to Germany

HAMBURG, Germany (AP)—The search for bandits in Britain's $7 million train robbery spread to Germany today after a Scotland Yard tip that they may undergo face-lifting operations here.

A spokesman of the federal criminal police headquarters in Wiesbaden confirmed that Scotland Yard cabled them that Richard Reynolds, 41, and Thomas Daly, 32, may be trying to get in touch with a plastic surgeon willing to change their faces.

Hamburg detectives were visiting scores of surgeons to tell them to be on the alert.

Among the silver buckles and buttons and braid of the visiting gente fina a few gem-studded weapons occasionally were visible, but beyond the ropes not even a pistol offended the proprieties ignored by Shirl and his two Texican ranch hands.

Though I clothed my interest in a casual offhand touch-and-go indifference, I did now and again manage to steal a fleeting look at the old man's daughter.

Now a barelegged boy, proud as Punch on Lagrimas, appeared out of the crowd, wildly cheered by the peons with shouts of "magnifico!" and other less distinguishable tributes of their enthusiasm.

Ybarra, dismissing our animal with scarcely a glance, turned a strengthening frown in the direction of Daguerrias. Catching my eye he called: "Is that fellow your rider?"

"With your permission, Don Alfredo. I will ride the mare myself."

"You, Senor?" His astonishment was apparent. "The boy, Ysidro, will be upon Lagrimas."

"No matter."

I saw a good many startled faces. And more than a few rather pitying stares. Daguerrias looked dumfounded. And, the way he stood straight up in his stirrups, a scorpion might have crawled up Shirl's pant-leg.

A little longer the girl's father eyed me. With a shrug then, he said, "Perhaps we'd best be about it. The way it looks off there we may be in for some rain."

It did seem more like seven than three. I could not remember so awesome a sky. The hills to the south were cut off like mesas by the low ridge of cloud blackly boiling above them.

Don Alfredo, meanwhile, had beckoned up several mozos. He was in the midst of issuing instructions when I said, breaking in: "You've possible noticed this mare is crippled. It's not only this club foot. The walls of her hoofs are too thin to hold plates. As you may see, we've had to pull them."

"So?" Ybarra said.

"Well, in view of these facts—plus the additional handicap of a green rider weighing more than twice what your boy does—if it's agreeable to you we'd like to run on plowed ground."

He hadn't had much choice the way I had put it, but I'd been ready if he'd balked to propose we ride owners. He weighed considerably more to have offset considerable.

"And where?"

"Off yonder," I pointed. "The maize field will do."

Shirl Dorrus pushed up with his face looking bony and the length of his scowl plainly twisted to trouble.

But Ybarra, before Shirl could pour out his spleen, gave rapid instructions in a crackle of Spanish. The men he had beckoned sprang away and the mustached driver, cramping his wheels, fetched the protesting coach between where I stood and Dorrus' rednecked anger.

The mob of paisanos, swarming over the ropes, broke in shouts for the maize, the gente in their wake and Bancroft Benson departing with Queen after the boy on Lagrimas.

The ears, sun cured on their stalks, had not yet been harvested I discovered when we came to the head of the field. I had thought to run between the rows, but already a horde of willing brown hands was tearing the rattling

Speaks Out Against the Rights Bill

By JOHN R. STARR

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Eugene (Bull) Connor, former Birmingham, Ala., City Commissioner, said Tuesday night that if the civil rights bill pending before Congress passes, "White people will be nothing but slaves."

He spoke to some 125 persons at a meeting sponsored by the Capital Citizens Council of Little Rock, which is trying to drum up interest in its boycott of integrated businesses in the city.

Connor devoted most of his speech to recounting his experiences as public safety commissioner in Birmingham when he squelched anti-segregation demonstrations by Negroes with a hard hand.

He said the anti-integration fight is not lost and warned that Little Rock's integration difficulties may not be over even though some restaurants, movie houses and other facilities have been desegregated in the past nine months without incident.

Connor blamed the integration movement on "a clique of so-called Negro preachers who are making money out of this thing."

Amis Guthridge, president of the citizens council, introduced Connor as the "type of leadership which will save not only the South, but these United States."

Earlier Tuesday, in a news conference, Connor said the fight against integration cannot be won until "white people rise up and fight like our forefathers did."

He defended his actions against anti-segregation demonstrations in Birmingham, praised Gov. George C. Wallace of Alabama and was sharply critical of the Kennedy administration.

As commissioner of public safety, Connor directed police to put down demonstrators in what he said was a harsh manner.

"We threw them (Negroes) in jail by the hundreds," he said. "We used dogs and high-pressure hoses. When they parade—white or black—that's what causes trouble."

To stem the tide of Negro demonstrators, Connor said, whites have "got to march, sit-in and pray like they (Negroes) do."

Birmingham changed its form of government in April to the mayor-council system, leaving Connor without a job. He later lost heavily in a race for mayor. He is Democratic national committeeman from Alabama and said he has no intention of supporting President Kennedy in 1964.

Connor referred to Atty. Gen. Robert Kennedy as "Bobby-sox Kennedy" and said his appointment as attorney general was the "biggest mistake the President ever made."

Connor, who said his father was born in Pine Bluff, Ark., said whites should organize "get out the vote" drives just as Negroes are doing.

The 65-year-old Connor said his family left Arkansas in the 1880s. "If my father could see some of the things going on in this country today, he'd turn over in his grave," Connor said.

"But dynamite, sticks and bricks is not the way to stop integration," he said. "The white man is going to have to rise up and fight like our forefathers did 100 years ago."

He referred to Reconstruction days when Negroes for a time controlled many state and county governments.

Plant Expansion Vote Delayed

BLITHEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—An election on a $140,000 bond issue for expansion of Scott Valve Co., has been postponed indefinitely from Sept. 17 at the request of the firm.

Norman Stiles, company president, said he hoped the bond election could be held later. Plant officials asked for the postponement because there was a possibility they would take a different approach to the growth of the company.

A tax of .7 of a mill was involved.

WILMINGTON, Ohio (AP)—Lt. Col. Emmett O. Kirschbaum of Mountain Home, Ark., and six other men escaped injury Tuesday when an Air Force Reserve C-119 Flying Boxcar transport plane piloted by Kirschbaum crashed landed in a field shortly after takeoff.

VIETNAMESE, Laos (AP)—The premier's office announced today an Air American C-46 transport plane crashed near Tchepone in southern Laos last week after it was hit by pro-Communist Pathet Lao ground fire while on a supply dropping mission to refugees.

The communique said except for one unidentified body found by a rescue party, no information was available on other members of the crew, which consisted of three Americans and four Asians.

Air America is a private concern chartered by the Vietnamese government. Two of its planes previously have been shot down on supply missions, one earlier this year and one in 1962.

Mass Parachute Jump JONESBORO, Ark. (AP)—A mass parachute jump by six members of the Arkansas State College Skydiving Club marked the opening of the Craighead County Fair Monday night.

Canned Beans & Beef Casserole Is Delicious And Quick

When the children unexpectedly bring guests home for dinner, just how good is your "planning power". Some pretty fast thinking may be in order, particularly when you're intended dinner for only the family.

Your store of canned foods now becomes the most valuable item in the kitchen. A modern homemaker always keeps plenty of canned foods on hand for just such an emergency.

The result of quick planning is this delectable looking casserole made from canned beans & ground beef in barbecue sauce. Young guests and father, too, will think you're a genius. Onion, green pepper, and bacon provide extra zest—process cheese melts on top. The combination is unbeatable!

A bowl of cole slaw and refrigerator biscuits are great accompaniments. For dessert—pineapple upside down cake, baked right along with the casserole.

Beans 'n' Cheese Bake

2 slices bacon
2 cup chopped green pepper
2 cup chopped onion
2 cans (1 pound each) beans & ground beef in barbecue sauce
2 slices (2 ounces) mild process cheese, cut in thin strips

In skillet, cook bacon until crisp; remove, drain, and crumble. Pour off all but 2 tablespoons drippings; add green pepper and onion; cook until tender. Stir in beans; transfer to a 1-quart casserole. Top with cheese strips and crumbled bacon. Bake at 350°F. for 30 minutes or until cheese is melted. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Negroes at Memphis Unhappy

MEMPHIS (AP)—More demonstrations were expected today as Negroes pressed for their avowed goal of complete desegregation of city schools by 1964.

Hundreds of Negroes paraded around and through the city Board of Education building Monday and later demonstrated at two Negro high schools.

Attorney A. W. Willis Jr., said Negroes would continue to demonstrate to "protest the school system as it is now organized." He attacked the entire system of education in the city and asked for improvements as well as integration.

Guilty of Having Marijuana

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—Jimmy Brown, 19, of Little Rock, pleaded guilty in circuit court Tuesday to charges of possession of marijuana.

Judge P. E. Dobbs said Brown would be sentenced at a later date. No date was set.

Also charged in the case is William T. Smith, 21, of Stoppings, who will be tried Oct. 1.

The two were arrested last month after police found a small tobacco can about half full of marijuana in a Hot Springs hotel room.

Airforce Base School Crowded

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Overcrowded conditions at the Little Rock Air Force Base school caused a chain reaction of transfers Monday in the Pulaski County (Rural) School District and this set off parental reaction Tuesday.

School Supt. E. F. Dunn transferred 250 pupils from the Air Base school to Warren Dupree Elementary School; about the same number of Dupree pupils were transferred to Jacksonville Elementary; and 61 Jacksonville Elementary pupils were transferred to Scott Elementary.

Twelve parents protested that rumor had it that the Scott school was substandard and the Jacksonville school had been condemned.

Dunn said all the county's schools were A-rated and that a new elementary school under construction south of Jacksonville would be completed between Oct. 15 and Nov. 1 and would alleviate the problem. The parents relented.

Alphabet Used to Name Quads

JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—Misses A, B, C, and D Harkins now have names.

They are Alice Bernice, Elizabeth Jane, Mary Regina and Anita Margaret.

The quadruplets were born last Saturday to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas P. Harkins of Jackson. They had expected only twins and were short of names anyway, having had to choose for their other five children. So the quads were assigned letters temporarily.

Saline County Rejects Courthouse

BENTON, Ark. (AP)—Saline County voters apparently rejected Tuesday a proposal to build a new $621,000 courthouse.

With only two small precincts unreported, the Saline County Clerk's office said the vote was 1,218 to 913 against the proposal, which also included a two-mill tax increase.

Easy Way To Polish Furniture

The secret of furniture care is selecting the right polishes for the various wood finishes in your home. Gone are the days when polishing was a tiring, time-consuming task of endless rubbing to achieve the desired, well-cared-for gleam. Although antiques and worn furniture still require this kind of special attention, the rest of your furniture can be easily cared for with the newer polishes that give fine results with less effort. In the picture above the original satin finish of this Directoire bedroom furniture is kept that way with effortless care by using a cream polish.

What Polishes to Use:

High Gloss Furniture—At least twice a year wax furniture with a liquid silicone wax polish. Between these waxings use a silicone spray type product. Both polishes will maintain the high gloss, provide cleaning and protection, and are very easy to use.

Satin Finish Furniture—Use a cream polish. Thoroughly moisten the cloth with polish and wipe over the surface. After the surface dries, a haze appears which is quickly wiped away with a clean, soft cloth. Many homemakers prefer to increase the gloss somewhat and use a silicone polish.

Low Gloss Furniture—To retain the dull dubbed appearance use a low luster cream polish.

Antique and Worn Furniture—To preserve and maintain the rich antique patina paste wax must be used. It must also be used on furniture finishes that are in poor condition. For worn furniture apply paste wax with a very fine steel wool to protect and reduce slight finish defects.

Body of Student Found in Bay

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The body of missing Hickman Price III, 20, Stanford University student and son of a couple prominent in the Democratic party, was found floating near the south tower of the Golden Gate bridge Tuesday.

Still unanswered was whether the death was suicide or an accident. An inquest will not be held until the week after next, said Coroner Henry W. Tuckel, because of a crowded schedule.

The youth's parents, Hickman Price Jr., former assistant secretary of commerce, and Margaret Price, Democratic National Committee vice chairman, flew to San Francisco last week when they received word their son's sports car had been abandoned in the bridge parking lot Sept. 3.

Quints Reported in Good Health

MARACAIBO, Venezuela (AP)—The four-day-old Prieto Quintuplet boys were reported in good health today, their future brightened by funds for their education and support.

Their mother, Mrs. Ines Marie Cuervo de Prieto, 34, was also reported improving as Venezuelans responded to her concern over how to support five new sons in a one-bedroom home on her husband's $10 a day income.

She received a letter from President Romulo Betancourt saying he had set up a group insurance policy for educating the boys.

The Caracas newspaper El Nacional established a "foundation for aid of Venezuela's quintuplets." Various firms sent gifts.

The father, an oil company foreman, received two weeks' paid vacation.

Real Estate Ban Proposal Protested

By WILLIAM J. CONWAY
CHICAGO (AP)—Hundreds of white property owners ringed City Hall today in a massed protest against a proposed ordinance that would ban discrimination in real estate deals.

Busload after busload of the demonstrators arrived from their neighborhoods. They marched around City Hall two to five abreast. Police estimated the throng at about 3,000.

They turned out to express opposition to a proposed ordinance that would forbid racial or religious discrimination in the sale, rental or lease of property.

Most of the pickets were women dressed in afternoon frocks and some in slacks. One woman carried a baby while a small child toddled at her heels. Another pushed an infant in a baby buggy. The men among the marchers were middle aged or older.

The demonstrators carried signs urging that the question at issue be submitted to all the voters in a referendum. Some of the placards read: "We are opposed to open occupancy," and "What freedoms do we have left?"

Some of the women joined their soprano voices in a song pointed at Mayor Richard J. Daley. The end line was this: "Dick Daley, won't you please get lost?"

A detail of 80 policemen stood guard inside and outside the black square City Hall-Cook County building in the heart of the downtown district.

Inside the building, the City Council was ready to act on a proposed ordinance that would bar discrimination by real estate brokers in the sale, rental or lease of property.

The Property Owners Coordinating Committee, an alliance of 47 neighborhood organizations, sponsored the demonstration.

East Germans Escape to West

BERLIN (AP)—Two East Germans escaped to West Berlin during the night by swimming a canal between the two parts of the city, West police reported.

The escapees were reported to have swum across the Havel canal, which is about 100 yards wide and 10 feet deep, and to have reached the West side without being seen.

Daughterly Quads Die in Few Hours

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Mrs. Thomas F. Daugherty gave birth to quadruplets Tuesday, but the infants—born four months prematurely—died a few hours later.

The infants ranged in weight from 12½ ounces to 16½ ounces when they were delivered at Barberton Citizens Hospital.

The Daughertys, who live in the Portage Lakes area south of Akron, have two other children, a girl 7 and a boy 5.

Prescott, Arkansas, was one of the first towns in the state to operate its own public utilities, installing municipal light and water systems in 1899.

Name Fails to Bother Miss Coca

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Some television experts are fretting about the unusual title of Imogene Coca's new comedy series, "Grindl." They find it hard to pronounce and they wonder if there isn't a chance it will be confused with "Glynis," a very different comedy series on a rival network.

That doesn't bother Miss Coca much in these days before her first plunge into television situation comedy, the series which has its premiere on NBC next Sunday evening.

"With my own name, how on earth can I worry about 'Grindl'?" the comedienne asked. "People are always having trouble with Imogene—probably most people call it Eye-mo-lean, and Coca gets mixed up with cocoa. And then they settle for what's her name."

Imogene chuckles over one affectionate fan letter addressed to "Emma Jean Keshner." She received her first name from a maternal grandmother and made several efforts to change it when she got into show business.

When recognition came, it was as Imogene Coca in "New Faces of 1934," a Broadway revue. Eventually she became America's

Missile Suit Is Transferred

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A suit filed in White County Circuit Court by 17 guards at Titan II missile sites was transferred Tuesday to federal district court at Little Rock.

The guards say they did not receive time-and-a-half pay for hours they say they worked in excess of 40 hours a week.

The defendants, Paul Hardeman, Inc., and Fischback and Moore, Inc., had the suit transferred. The firms contracted to build the Titan II sites.

The plaintiffs said they did not know how many hours over 40 a week they worked and asked the defendants to supply this information.

favorite comedienne in the world with "Your Show of Shows" with Sid Caesar that started on NBC television in 1950.

As Grindl, she'll play a naive, well-intentioned itinerant worker who stumbles into comedy situations.

Still another doctor arrives on the television screens this month—Dr. Richard Kimble. He won't be a dedicated, white-coated healer but an innocent man, convicted of murder, David Janssen, once the jaunty private eye, Richard Diamond, will play the part of this haunted medic in an action series, "The Fugitive," a new ABC entry starting next Tuesday.

That brings the medical content of evening television up to nine practitioners, a larger group than its lawyers, cops or cowboys.

Job Issue May Harm White Men

An A P Special Report
By JACK LEFLER
AP Business News Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—With Negro organizations and many federal, state and local governmental agencies pressing for a better break for Negro workers, hiring practices and contests for jobs have become an acute issue.

As a result of these pressures, there have been some questions raised whether a reverse discrimination—against white workers—might develop.

An Associated Press survey of some of the nation's major industrial centers showed that more Negroes are being hired for better jobs but it also indicated there is no great rush to provide employment for them on the basis of race.

On the other hand, Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson, who heads President Kennedy's Committee on Equal Employment Opportunity, said industry had exceeded expectations in providing more and better jobs for non-whites.

Promotion of three Negroes to post office supervisory jobs, although they were lower than 53 white men on the established merit scale, set off a furor in Dallas. Eleven high-ranking white postal workers filed suit against the Post Office Department, claiming they were discriminated against because of their race.

A Seattle employment agency operator reported two instances in the last month in which white workers complained they had lost their jobs because they had been replaced with Negroes.

Dudley Cameron, deputy area manager of the California Department of Employment in San Francisco, reported an increasing inclination to hire Negroes.

"One might say it is discrimination against whites," he said.

In New York City, two members of the City Commission on Human Rights suggested that racial bias in the building trades might be eased by favoring Negroes over white applicants for apprenticeship.

About 70 St. Louis area firms have made efforts since the first of this year to hire Negroes for the first time on jobs other than menial capacity. Negro leaders and employment experts said that there have been no complaints of discrimination in reverse.

The Michigan Fair Employment Practices Commission pointed out that employment quotas based on race would be against state law. It said it had processed a few reverse discrimination complaints several months ago.

Five big Chicago downtown banks invited the Chicago Urban League to help them recruit more Negro employees. Edwin C. Perry, executive director of the league, said the jobs range from page girl to management trainee. Archie Williams, chairman of

Homemade Applesauce Hits The Spot

This French Apple Tart is made with homemade applesauce and a single layer of thinly sliced apples. Serve it well chilled.

While apples are plentiful, crisp and tart, treat the family to homemade applesauce and many good dishes made with applesauce.

The quickest and easiest way to make applesauce is with a Food Mill. There's no need to peel or core the apples. Quarter them and remove the blossom ends and stems. Place the apples in a pan and add just enough water to keep them from sticking. Cover and cook over low heat until the apples are soft, stirring occasionally. Strain the apples through a Food Mill and sweeten to taste with sugar.

French Apple Tart
Pastry for 1-crust pie
2 medium apples
2 cups applesauce
3 tablespoons sugar
½ cup apricot jam

Line a 9-inch pie pan with pastry; turn under edge and press with a fork or flute. Pare, core and cut apples into thin slices. Spoon applesauce into unbaked pastry shell. Arrange apple slices in a circle on top of applesauce. Sprinkle with sugar. Bake in a moderate oven (375°F.) 35 to 40 minutes or until pastry is golden. Cool. Melt apricot jam over low heat. Brush top of pie with jam. Chill thoroughly before serving.

Free Leaflet: For other good ways to cook with homemade applesauce, write for the free leaflet, "Applesauce A Plenty." Send a stamped self-addressed envelope to Foley Manufacturing Co., Minneapolis 18, Minn.

Officials of GOP Attack Rockefeller

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—State Republican Party Chairman William L. Spicer of Fort Smith and former GOP gubernatorial candidate Henry M. Britt of Hot Springs attacked Monday night the party leadership of Winthrop Rockefeller.

Britt and Spicer met with the Pulaski County Women's Republican Club to answer questions about their moves to cut down Rockefeller's party duties to those of national committeeman.

Several Young Republicans, who are on Rockefeller's side, also attended to ask questions.

Britt said the party hadn't made any real progress under Rockefeller. He said that in 1952 Jack Joyce polled 38,000 votes for 3rd District congressman and in 1952 Cy Carney Jr. polled only 25,000. Roy Mitchell of Hot Springs polled 78,000 votes for governor in 1954 and Willis Rickels of Fayetteville got 82,000 votes last year, Britt pointed out.

Rockefeller became national committeeman in 1961. Britt polled 129,000 votes for governor in 1960. Britt and Spicer said Rockefeller had been highbanded in dealing with lower party officials.

the Boston Labor and Industry Committee of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, said there has been no rush to employ Negroes but there has been a rush to set the groundwork to get more jobs for Negroes.

A definite increase in requests for Negroes to fill jobs in industry and business was noted by Ernest Cooper, executive director of the Urban League in Cleveland. He said many of the orders are from firms that have tried perhaps one Negro, found that it has worked and are back for more.

They said he had been doing the state chairman's work and that he really hadn't helped the party at the polls.

The executive committee of the party voted 11-10 Aug. 31 to limit Rockefeller's activities to those of national committeeman. Spicer said Rockefeller's activities and those of his assistant, Everett A. Ham Jr., had violated party rules by assuming duties of the state chairman.

Spicer gave two examples. He said that after Ben C. Henley of Harrison stepped down as state chairman in 1961, Rockefeller sent out correspondence from the state office over the signature of new chairman Roy Mitchell of Hot Springs without Mitchell's knowledge. He said Rockefeller initiated political surveys in several counties, including Jefferson County, and that the first that he knew of it was when he read it in newspapers.

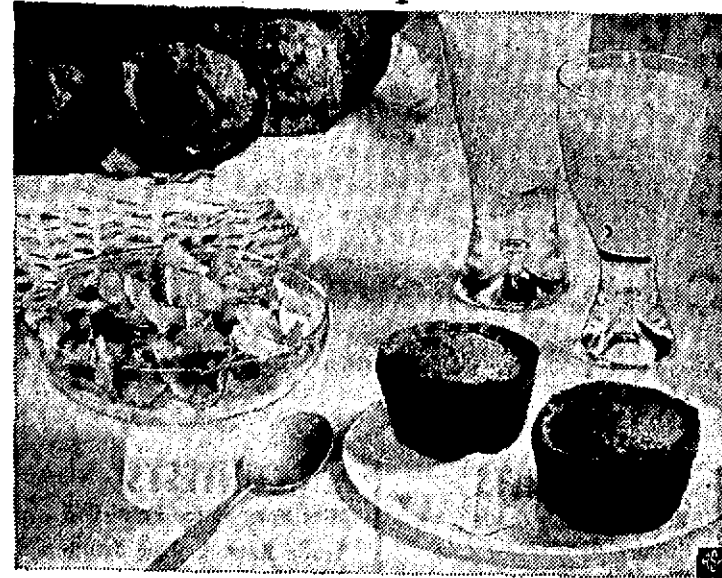

Britt said he and other Republicans went to Rockefeller many times, beginning in March, asking him to get rid of Ham. Each time, he said, "It was still the same old answer. He's running the show. If we want to join the team, that's okay. It's his team."

Spicer, Britt and Mrs. Jean Starnes, moderator of the program, criticized the Young Republicans. "There are things that you young people had better learn," Britt said. "When you are on a team, you play as a team."

Fallout Shelters to Be Stocked

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—William A. Price, Little Rock Civil Defense Director, said Tuesday that stocking of 66 community fallout shelters with room for 90,000 persons probably will begin this week. Already, 39 shelters have been stocked with supplies for about 33,000 persons, he said. The shelters already stocked, in the event of nuclear attack, were stocked at the height of the Cuban crisis a year ago, Price said.

Orange juice, corn flakes, milk, bran muffins and butter—a "Better Breakfast Month" breakfast.

A basic breakfast pattern has been developed as a specific tool to encourage better breakfast habits. A basic cereal and milk breakfast pattern contains just five commonly eaten foods—fruit, cereal, milk, bread and butter. For most people, average servings of these foods supply one-fourth of the day's food needs. During the Iowa Breakfast Studies, it was demonstrated that a basic cereal and milk breakfast supplying one-fourth of the day's calories and protein is superior in maintaining mental and physical efficiency, in the late morning hours, when compared to larger or smaller morning meals. So, a light, modern breakfast can be adequate—as well as economical, convenient, and easy to prepare—when built on a basic cereal and milk breakfast pattern.

Better Breakfast Bran Muffins

2 cups whole bran cereal 1 cup sifted all-purpose flour
1½ cups milk 1 teaspoon salt
¼ cup molasses ½ teaspoon soda
1 egg, beaten

Soften cereal in milk and molasses about 5 minutes. Add egg; stir well. Sift together flour, soda, and salt. Stir dry ingredients into bran mixture just until dry ingredients are moistened. Fill greased medium size muffin pans, 2½x1¼ inches, about ¾ full. Bake in hot oven (400°F) until done, about 15 minutes. Yield: 1½ dozen muffins.

Record Rice Crop for Arkansas

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department predicted Tuesday what Arkansas rice farmers have been predicting for some time: A record rice crop for Arkansas this year.

The USDA said Arkansas would produce 17,091,000 hundred-pound bags, 191,000 more than the record set in 1954.

But the 1954 record crop was produced on 672,000 acres and the 1953 crop is planted on 422,000 acres. The department forecast a yield of 4,050 pounds per acre for Arkansas, 1,450 pounds per acre more than produced in 1954.

The department also predicted a record soybean crop Tuesday—61,404,000 bushels, 3,204,000 more than last year's record-setting production. The per acre production forecast was 21 bushels compared to 21.5 bushels per acre last year. The department also forecast declines in cotton and corn production and increases in peach and pecan production.

It said Arkansas would produce 1,360,000 bales of cotton this year, compared to 1,450,000 last year. It said the state's grain crop would be 6,016,000 bushels with a yield of 32 bushels per acre. Last year's production was 6,728,000 bushels.

Peach production was forecast at 1,750,000 bushels, 730,000 bushels more than produced in Arkansas last year. The state is expected to produce 2 million pounds of pecans, four times what it produced in 1962.

Four Approved for Relief

WASHINGTON (AP)—Four more Arkansas counties were approved by the Agriculture Department Tuesday for drought relief. Stone, Van Buren and Yell counties were designated for feed grain discounts and haying and grazing privileges. Sharp County was designated for the latter.

A total of 34 Arkansas counties now have received drought aid this year.

White County Favors Hospital

SEARCY, Ark. (AP)—A $600,000 bond issue and a 2-mill tax were approved Tuesday by White County voters in favor of building a $1.2 million hospital.

The bond issue passed 3,914 to 2,392 with five boxes unreported. The tax was passed 3,832 to 2,555. Half the funds to build the 50-bed hospital would be Hill-Burton Act funds.

Jeers Greet Negroes in Some Areas

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—Hundreds of white pupils boycotted classes at West End High School after two Negroes were admitted today and started a jeering session on the grounds and in an adjacent parking lot.

Adult spectators, including members of a hard core segregationist group quickly built up the milling throng. Police called in reinforcements and, prodding with night sticks, moved the crowd back two blocks.

It all started soon after two Negro girls entered the schools. Most white students stayed away from class.

The white boys and girls urged others who had entered the school to come back out. Some did.

One boy yelled after the Negroes were admitted, "If they can demonstrate, so can we; we'll do it again tomorrow."

Police gave a preliminary estimate that about 100 white students entered the building during the morning. The enrollment is 1,500, but many of the 100 heeded appeals by those outside to leave school.

As they came out white people on porches in the neighborhood applauded.

One white boy brought an apple. He hurled it at a car of a white man who brought his son to school and watched him go into the building.

Hard core segregationists, old hands at demonstrating, appeared with their Confederate flags. Others drove up and down in front of the schools with Confederate flags flying.

A man who identified himself as a member of the National States Right party carried his flag on a stick and had a stack of mimeographed literature urging a boycott of desegregated schools.

Police arrested him when he refused to move from the vicinity. "The school is open," Police Capt. Glenn Evans announced over a loudspeaker. "Classes are in session we want you to enter the building or leave the grounds."

So the enlarging group left the grounds and went to the parking lot.

Edwin Guthman, chief information officer for the Justice Department, was on campus observing. Joe Dolan, deputy U.S. attorney general, was there, too. But he was asked to leave the building.

A teacher complained that Dolan came into the building to use a pay telephone. After the teacher complained, a police sergeant took Dolan outside to Evans.

Dolan said he would not enter the school again and would leave the area if his presence created any trouble.

The demonstration grew wilder as the morning progressed. Numerous arrests were made, some involving persons police identified as having taken part in disorders last Wednesday at Ramsay High School.

Later in the morning the crowd began to drift away.

U.S., China Ambassadors in Meeting

WARSAW, Poland (AP)—The 119th U.S.-Red Chinese ambassadorial meeting began today in an unusual atmosphere of clicking cameras, floodlights and security guards.

Ambassadors John Moors Cabot and Wang Ping-nan had the start of their face-to-face meeting in Warsaw's Mysliwiecki Palace filmed by a local television crew at the request of Western news media.

Newsman, for probably the first time since the talks began in Geneva in 1955, were allowed into the meeting room to actually witness a brief exchange by the two ambassadors.

Cabot and Wang stood behind polished tables 10 feet apart, each flanked by three aides. They exchanged curt smiles and half bows.

Cabot then asked Wang to confirm that it was all right for the scene to be filmed. The Chinese envoy did so with a nod and smile.

Outsiders left the room before the two ambassadors opened their manila folders of instructions for the talk, details of which, by agreement, almost never are made public.

Cabot generally was thought to be probing for information to help the West measure the Soviet-Chinese split and know what to expect next in such Red China-influenced areas as Laos and Viet Nam.

Wang in the past is understood to have merely repeated many of the charges of Peking Radio.

The ambassadorial-level talks began eight years ago with a U.S. effort to gain return of American citizens detained on the Chinese mainland.

They promise to attract increasing interest as Communist China isolates itself from the rest of the world, including its former Red allies.

Today's unusual turnout of news and cameramen was apparently what prompted Polish authorities to send uniformed police and security agents to the meeting place. Such individuals are not ordinarily seen at the Chinese-American talks.

New Integration Leader at Pine Bluff

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP)—The Pine Bluff Movement, an integrationist organization that spurred desegregation of some Pine Bluff facilities, has a new leader.

The Rev. Benjamin S. Gringage took over as chairman Sunday after Robert Whitfield resigned to attend the University of Arkansas. Whitfield was the movement's first chairman. He was suspended from Arkansas AM&N College in February for participating in civil rights demonstrations. He was a senior.

Gringage, 30, a Methodist minister, is a native of Kentucky but has been in Arkansas the past four years. He attended Philander Smith College in Little Rock and worked with the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee.

He moved to Pine Bluff in January and helped organize the Pine Bluff Movement. Whitfield said he would attend the university on a scholarship from the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee. He said his brother, William Whitfield, a member of the movement, also would attend Arkansas on scholarships. The university has admitted Negroes for several years. Only a few have attended.

Blanchard Springs, in the Ozark National Forest, is situated around a handmade dam, cold springs, cabins, and an ideal spot for hunting deer.
